I-81 South to I-380 S, PA-33 S and I-78 E to US-222 S in South Whitehall Township. Take exit 54A from I-78 W

FROM THE WEST:

Take I-76 East

FROM THE SOUTH:

Take I-81 North

LODGING:

There are many options for lodging in the greater Leesport area, with Reading and Wyomissing PA close by. Hotels are booking up fast and the rates will rise the closer we get to Field Days, so you are encouraged to make plans now rather than waiting until September. A Google search of your favorite travel site is the best place to start. These days, cancellation policies are pretty flexible, so keep that in mind if you aren't totally sure you will be able to attend. In addition to hotels, inns, camping and RV sites, VRBO (www.vrbo.com) and Airbnb (www.airbnb.com) offer vacation rentals, ranging from single rooms to whole houses.

We hope to see you at the 26th Annual NODPA Field Days in Leesport, PA on September 24th and 25th and we hope you will register today! Please contact Nora Owens, NODPA Field Days Coordinator, if you have questions or to register early. Call 413-772-0444, if you reach the voicemail, please leave a message, or email her at noraowens@comcast.net.

ABOUT NODPA:

The mission of the Northeast Organic Dairy Producers Alliance is to enable organic dairy family farmers, situated across an extensive area, to have informed discussion about matters critical to the wellbeing of the organic dairy industry as a whole. Contact Ed Maltby, Executive Director, by phone, 413-772-0444, or by email, ednodpa@comcast.net. Visit the website at www.nodpa.com.

QUESTIONS? If you have questions about the NODPA Field Days, contact Nora Owens, NODPA Field Days Coordinator, at noraowens@comcast.net or 413-772-0444.

Stop Farming like You’ll Never Leave: Rethinking Profit, Reinvestment, and Retirement.

Presenter: Ted LeBow
CEO, Good Roots
(formerly known as Kitchen Table Consultants) and a farmer panel

Learn about a practical, clear framework for balancing today's cash needs with tomorrow's continuity. The session tackles profitability with purpose: setting aside reinvestment capital, building retirement without starving the business, and structuring transitions that respect both the current farm family and the next generation.

Ted LeBow

8:30 pm PROGRAM ENDS

Friday, September 25, 2026

6:30 – 9:00 am Continental Breakfast:
Berks Agricultural Center

7:00 – 9:00 Producer-only Meeting: A meeting in which producers can speak freely about all things related to the organic dairy industry.

9:00 – 10:15 Renewable Energy On the Farm: Strategies to address the rising cost of energy on the farm, with innovative solutions that everyone can employ.
Presenter: Klaas Marten, Klaas and Mary-Howell Marten Farm, Penn Yan, NY

10:15 – 11:30 From Pasture to Profit—How Grazing Management Drives Intake, Milk Yield, and Efficiency: Learn how grazing decisions influence forage quality, cow behavior, and nutrient supply, and how these translate into milk yield and system-level efficiency.
Presenters: Dr. Leoni Martins, PhD., Asst. Clinical Professor of Precision Dairy Nutrition, Dept. of Animal Science, Penn State University, and Dr. James Lawhead, DVM, Extension Associate, Dairy Science, Penn State University

11:30 – Noon Intro to Farm Tour: Spring Creek Farms
3880 North Church Street, Wernersville, PA, 19565, Friday afternoon’s farm tour.
Hosts: Forrest and Greg Stricker will give an overview of their operation and answer questions ahead of the afternoon tour.
